

HAPPY VALENTINE'S Day!

Love motivates. Love is selfless. Love constantly grows. Love is inclusive. Our love for Katie, just as the love of every new parent, began the moment I knew she was growing inside me. Love grew every moment. Love for Katie grew from Jeff and me, her family, friends, doctors, nurses, CF community and everyone one of you. Love takes us on many kinds of journeys, such as this journey on the Path to a Cure for CF. Thank you for joining us on the Path to a Cure and giving the gift of breath and life to all of those with CF.

Thank you for the love you show each time you talk to someone about CF and bring them on this path with us. Thank you for each dollar you give for new services, treatments and research for a cure for CF. Thank you for volunteering, securing donations, sponsorships and helping in any way you can. The CF world is making such progress on its Path to a Cure! Journey along with us and feel the love grow inside you as you give the gift of breath and life to those battling this horrific disease each day.
