HAPPY HOLIDAYS!
HOLIDAY ONLINE AUCTION

All of us at The Rose Foundation wish each and every one of you a happy, healthy and peaceful HOLIDY SEASON!

As we come to the close of 2023 and the fourth year of COVID and strive to navigate a new normal, The Caul Family especially wants to express our gratefulness for family and friends. Without our family, our CF family and our friends, we could not have come through these past four years with as much patience, hope and grace.

Our family, like so many, have faced many difficult challenges. Our oldest daughter has been struggling from long-COVID for over a year. While most of the world has moved on from COVID challenges, there are still those who face daily challenges with health issues. Katie was the last of our family to get COVID recently. Luckily Katie had a mild case and recovered quickly.

I mention our particular situations because I am constantly reminded of those who live their entire life struggling with cystic fibrosis, or any other chronic illness, and fighting each day for a healthier tomorrow.

I am also reminded each day of the patience and positivity that grows within those who suffer daily. Whether you spend hours daily taking 30-50 pills or doing hours of breathing treatments or exercise regimens, the HOPE is always there - maybe I will wake up one day and just feel better. Maybe a research report will bring new light on my illness and I will feel better soon. The HOPE and FAITH in Doctors, Researchers, Medications, and Treatments keeps one going; motivating one to make the most of life each day.

Wouldn't it be grand to just wake up and think about what you want to do today instead of waking up to pills, treatments and exercise regimens before just living the day?

Let's make this holiday season brighter for those living with chronic illness!

Thank you for whatever you are able to do and give towards that end.
